Facebook Outreach Webinar from the Church Development Committee

The CDC is doing a follow up webinar on how to do Facebook ads for your church. Last time, we covered some Facebook ad strategies that some of our churches are using to get more virtual attendees during the pandemic. In the follow up, we'll be walking one of our churches through the entire process, start to finish, so that you can see exactly how it's done and ask any questions you might have. The Webinar will be held on Zoom at 10am on Wednesday September 2nd. Register for this event on the Presbytery Webpage under events beginning August 19.

thank you!

It is almost time for the next Virtual Journey with CEDEPCA. We will be exploring Women's Experience in Guatemala. These are a great way to see first hand (virtually) the great work that our partners are doing in Guatemala. They are bringing God's love and hope to very vulnerable people. South Sudan: Lessons Learned on Reconciliation and What the Church is Doing

In response to great interest in Saturday's Presbytery meeting presentation, here is the video link for sharing with congregations: <https://www.dropbox.com/s/baqu1h7ng2354ht/Peaks%20Presbytery%20Presentation-Final%20draft.mp4?dl=0>

For those who missed the presentation, we hope you will have the opportunity to view the video, produced especially for Presbytery of the Peaks (POP) by Debbie Braaksma, coordinator of the World Mission's Africa Area Office, and Christi Boyd, mission co-worker based in the Democratic Republic of Congo. and learn what is happening through the Presbyterian Church of South Sudan.

As we continue to work on discerning God's call to be in a relationship with the Presbyterian Church of South Sudan (PCOSS), this will give us insight to some of the work that they are doing and give us a chance to think about how we might work together to use what they have learned to help with the reconciliation desired here. If you would like to join with others in the POP to explore more about South Sudan and how we might work together with PCOSS, contact Sandra Whitt, sandracpc@yahoo.com, 540-330-3451 or Scott Smith, scottsmith4u@gmail.com, 540-808-3779.
