

Granting Permission to Elect a Pastor Nominating Committee

When requesting permission for a congregation to elect a Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC), a session is asked to submit the following documentation to the COM:

1. An indication that the church is not in arrears with the Board of Pensions.

2. An indication that the church does not have any significant unresolved conflict.

3. An indication that the church has the ability to meet the Presbytery minimum salary guidelines and projected cost of living increases for three years without undercutting the ongoing mission of the congregation.

4. Attach a copy of a mission study completed within the past three years.

5. Session reaffirms its responsibility per the Book of Order to send commissioners regularly to Presbytery Meetings.
