GATHERING TO THE GIFT OF MUSIC... Open The Eyes Of My Heart

Open the eyes of my heart
I want to see You, I want to see You Open the eyes of my heart, Lord Open the eyes of my heart
I want to see You, I want to see You

[Chorus]
To see You high and lifted up Shinin' in the light of Your glory Pour out Your power and love As we sing holy, holy, holy Holy, holy, holy

WELCOMING THE LIGHT OF CHRIST IN US GREETING OUR NEIGHBORS

Turn to your neighbor and pass the peace of Christ. Also share with one another one thing you are thankful for this day.

SINGING HOLY PRAISE ...Seek Ye First

Seek ye first the kingdom of God
And His righteousness;
And all these things shall be added unto you. Hallelu, Hallelujah!
Ask, and it shall be given unto you; Seek, and you shall find.
Knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Hallelu, Hallelujah!
Man shall not live by bread alone, But by every word
That proceeds out from the mouth of God. Hallelu, Hallelujah!

HEARING THE WORD OF GOD Colossians 3:12-17

¹² As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. ¹³ Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.¹⁴ Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.¹⁵ And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful.¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.¹⁷ And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

LISTENING FOR GOD’S WISDOM TOGETHER

Turn to a few of your neighbors and discuss these questions together as you reflect on the Scripture this morning.

- ✦ Which of these traits do you find most difficult: compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, patience, forgiveness?
- ✦ How should wearing “the clothing of Christ” influence your daily living?
- ✦ What does it mean to let Christ’s peace rule our hearts?
- ✦ How does this passage inform how you engage as leaders in the Presbytery? In your local congregation?

OFFERING OUR GIFTS

Our offering this morning will benefit the two-cents-a-meal program. These funds are used to address hunger regionally, nationally, and internationally.

Sing Together: “Take O Take me as I am/Summon out what I will be/Set your seal upon my heart/And live in me”

CENTERING THROUGH THE GIFT OF MUSIC

Take this time to mediate on God’s message for you today.

PRAYING FOR GOD’S PEOPLE

SHARING IN THE LORD’S SUPPER

As we partake in the Lord’s Supper by intinction, we recognize the truth of Paul’s words that we are all equal in Christ Jesus. Therefore, we will serve communion one to another. After you have received the elements, please take the bread and cup, turn around and serve the next person in line before returning to your seat. There will be two elders who will come to serve you if you cannot come forward, please raise your hand if this is a need.

SINGING HOLY PRAISE..... I'm Gonna Live So God Can Use Me

I'm gonna live so God can use me
Anywhere, Lord, anytime.
I'm gonna live so God can use me
Anywhere, Lord, anytime.
I'm gonna pray so God can use me
Anywhere, Lord, anytime.
I'm gonna pray so God can use me
Anywhere, Lord, anytime.
I'm gonna work so God can use me
Anywhere, Lord, anytime.
I'm gonna work so God can use me
Anywhere, Lord, anytime.
I'm gonna sing so God can use me
Anywhere, Lord, anytime.
I'm gonna sing so God can use me.
Anywhere, Lord, anytime.

SENDING IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

We will join hands in the pew and across the aisle as we receive the benediction.

“Ancient Celts described the Holy Spirit as a “Wild Goose” because it was often thought that the Spirit, like a wild goose, has the tendency to disrupt or surprise us—it cannot be tracked or tamed.”

MISSION STUDY RECOMMENDATIONS A WAY FORWARD (as amended)

Prepared by the Mission Study Team
Revised January 2020

I. Introduction

We have spent the past two years listening to the presbytery, prayerfully seeking the guidance of the Spirit, asking questions, trying out ideas, and seeking to discern a way forward for our presbytery that faithfully reflects who and what the presbytery believes God is calling us to be and do.

What follows is a description of what the Presbytery of the Peaks might look like to fulfill its mission and vision. It is not yet a detailed plan for implementation or a manual of operations. That work will follow once we agree on a destination for our journey.

II. Commissions and Committees

The following commissions and committees will facilitate the multiple and varied partnerships within the Presbytery of the Peaks and with the wider church. The Book of Order defines both commissions and committees in G-3.0109.

1. The Pastoral Leadership Commission (PLC)

The scope of the PLC includes all the ministries that pertain to those who sense a call to the ministry of word and sacrament, ruling elders serving as commissioned pastors, congregations seeking pastoral or educational leadership, and the examination, integration and support of clergy and certified educators in the presbytery.

As a commission, the PLC shall have the authority to act on behalf of the presbytery in matters pertaining to candidacy, establishing calls, approving contracts, and commissioning or installing pastoral leaders, as well as validating ministries outside congregational ministry. All such actions shall be reported to the presbytery.

2. The Church Partnerships Commission (CPC)

The central focus of the CPC is to encourage, facilitate, and fund collaborative partnerships among the varied leaders and ministries of our presbytery, including church staff, congregations, new worshipping communities, campus ministries, and other validated ministries. Making use of neighborhood connections, as well as the natural partnerships that result from congregational size, context, or common interests, the goal is to make vital ministry a norm across the presbytery, fulfilling our calling to be the Body of Christ in and for the world.

As a commission, the CPC will have the authority to act on behalf of presbytery in the following matters: receiving and approving grants; merging congregations or forming ecumenical partnerships; starting new worshipping communities and new churches within the bounds of the presbytery. All such actions shall be reported to the presbytery.

3. Justice and Mercy Commission (JMC)

The purpose of the JMC is to engage and equip the presbytery in its advocacy for justice and in ministries of compassion, such as combating racism, alleviating hunger, or advocating for vulnerable populations.

As a commission, the JMC will allocate presbytery mission funds and grants that challenge and enable ministry partners to do together in mission what they cannot do as effectively or faithfully when acting alone. All such actions shall be reported to the presbytery.

4. The Board of Trustees

The Presbytery has been entrusted by God with financial, human, and material resources that are meant to support the ministry and mission of the presbytery. The Trustees will be the managing and legal steward of our paid staff, property, and all funds.

5. Constitutional Ministries Committee (CMC)

The presbytery is responsible for fulfilling duties contained in the Book of Order and to matters that pertain to both the Synod and General Assembly. The CMC will maintain the committees and commissions required by the constitution, such as the Permanent Judicial Commission and Committee on Representation, and maintaining required processes and procedures concerning sexual misconduct. It will receive communications from the higher councils of the church and lead the presbytery in appropriate responses.

Mindful of the Presbytery's fundamental commitment to inclusion and representation in all the councils of the church, the CMC shall develop appropriate means of drawing leaders into the presbytery's ministries, and the higher councils of the PCUSA, nominating individuals to serve on commissions and committees, and as officers of the presbytery.

6. The Coordinating Cabinet (CC)

The Coordinating Cabinet is responsible for leading the Presbytery to discern God's will in all its work. It shall coordinate the work of the committees and other structures of Presbytery, including presbytery meetings, the Manual of Operations, and other standing rules.

III. A VISION FOR STAFFING

1. GENERAL PRESBYTER/HEAD OF STAFF

(FT Minister of Word and Sacrament)

This position is principally administrative, providing leadership and oversight for the daily and occasional needs of the presbytery office, local congregations, and pastoral formation and transition.

2. NEIGHBORHOOD PRESBYTER (FT Minister of Word and Sacrament)

This position seeks to build and/or strengthen ministry partners among congregations and their leaders through a network of active neighborhood groups, with the goal of building relationships within the presbytery of love, care, and mutual support.

3. MISSION ADVOCATE - PT

This position will support the ministry of the Justice and Mercy Commission, working with that Commission to foster accountable partnerships within the presbytery that will challenge and equip our congregations and other communities of faith in being the body of Christ for the world.

4. PROGRAM DIRECTOR - PT

This position seeks to fulfill the presbytery's goal to connect, educate and support individuals and churches within the presbytery, with a particular focus on children, youth, and young adults, serving as Director of Camp Peaks, a resource to Youth Council, and coordinator for Triennium.

5. COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR - FT

This position seeks to support and strengthen the presbytery's connections and ministries through clear, comprehensive, innovative and demographic appropriate communication. The Communications Director will be responsible for developing and maintaining technological and communication systems that will serve the presbytery and its neighborhoods in their educational, missional, and relational ministries, and to assist, as requested, congregations or presbytery communities in developing their web presence and/or outreach. The position will also work to enhance social media connections.

6. STATED CLERK - PT

The Stated Clerk is an elected officer of the presbytery and its primary constitutional expert, including matters pertaining to the higher councils of the church, judicial procedures, and Presbyterian polity and order.

7. FINANCIAL AND OFFICE ADMINISTRATOR (FOA) - FT

The FOA will administer the fiduciary responsibilities of the presbytery, oversee the daily functions of the presbytery office and support staff, serving as a resource to the Trustees and to the General Presbyter.

8. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT (AA) - FT

The Administrative Assistant shall serve as the face and voice of the presbytery office, receiving guests, directing phone calls, and providing the necessary support to host committee and commission meetings in the presbytery office. He or she will provide administrative support to assigned commissions or committees of the presbytery.

9. NEIGHBORHOOD CONNECTORS - ELECTED VOLUNTEER LEADERS

Recognizing the geographic breadth of this presbytery and the limits of a single neighborhood presbyter in equipping the networks necessary to fulfill our mission, neighborhoods shall volunteer connectors. Their primary duty will be to shepherd the relationships within their neighborhood and to conduct the necessary administrative tasks that may grow out of the partnerships within the neighborhood.

IV. Office Requirements and Location

The Presbytery Office is a home base for the presbytery staff, but it will not function as a “presbytery center” or central gathering place. Cabinet recommends that the decision about where to locate the office be decided by the presbytery as the final matter of the transition.

V. Suggested Timeline

This vision of a way forward is a proposed framework for mapping out changes in our presbytery. If approved, the work of translating the framework into changes in the Manual of Operation will be required.

A Transition Team would be responsible for recommending changes to our Manual of Operation, which the presbytery accomplishes (according to its own rule) by two votes in two separate meetings. The Mission Study Team advises the cabinet and presbytery to actively include people currently serving in our various ministries in proposing changes to the MOO, and to provide the time necessary for considering how best to move forward. We recommend considering changes in the MOO in 4 phases. A total of 8 presbytery meetings will be needed, giving the presbytery fully two years to consider changes, concluding in May 2022. As each phase is approved, the changes in policy will take shape in practice. Cabinet will be responsible for reviewing and recommending further changes annually as they are implemented. A comprehensive review should be done in the 4th year after full implementation.

Thank you Forest Presbyterian Church for the lunch and gracious hospitality.

Biographical Statement

Kelsey Hawisher-Faul

My story begins with prayer. My parents always told me that I was alive because of the prayers of the people at our church in Minnesota – people who took shifts praying, even through the night, because I almost came too early, and then I came a little late, entering the world on the morning of February 12th, 1990. The second of three daughters, I grew up well-loved, with a sense that I was blessed to be alive, and that God has sustained me, even from the womb.

Not long after I was born, we moved to southern California, where I spent my formative years. My family went to a giant church every Sunday, and for a long time, my faith felt like another extracurricular activity. It wasn't until high school that I experienced a fundamental shift in how I understood my life: following Christ was the thing I had to focus on, and everything else was peripheral. What's striking to me is that this shift happened not long after I was baptized in the summer of 2014, which was also when I found the people who would become my church small group, and some of my best friends. This remains a reminder to me of the Holy Spirit's work in every stage of my life.

One day as a senior in high school, I was reading the story of 'blind Bartimaeus' in Mark chapter 10. "He is calling you," a crowd said to Bartimaeus. I'd never felt like God was talking to me until those words seemed to come alive, as though they weren't just for Bartimaeus, but were for me, too. Call language wasn't even part of my vocabulary then—it was years before I became a Presbyterian! And yet I joined my voice with Bartimaeus, saying, "I want to see." The call I received was a call to learn, which led me to Azusa Pacific University, where I majored in biblical studies. I cannot express the joy I took in studying the Bible both critically and reverently. I grew to love God in the classroom, engaging with my professors and peers, talking about scripture in a way I couldn't have imagined before.

My time in university was also a time of great doubt. I came face to face with my own inability to reconcile myself to God, and for a while, I struggled to believe that God was the God proclaimed in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was when I studied abroad in Oxford that I experienced spiritual healing – not through anything I learned in my tutorials, but through the act of worship. My friends and I went to evensong services every week at the local cathedral. I had never experienced liturgy like that before, and it was a balm for my soul. Slowly, my heart opened again, and I was finally able to receive Christ's peace.

As I approached the end of my university education, my professors encouraged me to go to seminary as preparation for a doctoral degree in biblical studies. I ended up road-tripping from California to Princeton Theological Seminary with Peter, my now-husband. At the time, we'd only met a handful of times, but that's a whole other story! A defining experience at Princeton was going on a silent retreat at an Anglican Benedictine monastery in upstate New York. I felt like my spirit had room to breathe there. That was the first time that I saw spiritual disciplines and practices not as acts of holiness beyond my reach, but as a path that I could walk to live in God's wholeness. That was the beginning of understanding that to live the spiritual life didn't have much to do with my own will-power (or lack thereof), and had more to do with cultivating a heart open to God's love and grace.

God has since worked through spiritual disciplines to sustain me during my first call as a Minister of Word and Sacrament. I was ordained on September 25th, 2016, and God has provided for me abundantly. The Spirit has moved, guiding me (and Peter) to a monthly contemplative clergy circle, and to a daily prayer group in our neighborhood, both of which have been life-giving for us and for our ministries. I am continually amazed by the way God's love for me overflows, allowing me to love others. My identity is one who is continually being reconciled to God through Jesus Christ, and strengthened daily by the Holy Spirit.

Faith Statement Kelsey Hawisher-Faul

I believe in God the Creator, the first Person of the Trinity, who spoke and continues to speak all of reality into being. All that is finds its beginning and its end in the Creator—and it is by God's grace that one so Holy is the one in whom we have our being.

I believe in Jesus Christ, who is God's Word embodied and enfleshed—the second Person of the Trinity. Jesus lived a life of profound and world-shaking love that pronounced judgment upon injustice and proclaimed true life through him. His death and resurrection were a turning point in history, when Death was defeated and it was made possible to reconcile all things to God through Christ. For when God looks at us, God sees the blamelessness of Christ, and accepts us as God's children.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, who is God's very breath in our lives. The Holy Spirit strengthens and empowers God's people to be the body of Christ, and to overcome our own selfish wants and desires in order to live in ways that preview the coming kingdom of God.

I believe that Scripture is the Word written, and that it witnesses to the revelation of Jesus Christ. Scripture digs deep into the earth, and shows us the root of our faith in the patient, persistent loving-kindness of God. Through Scripture, the Holy Spirit speaks, transforming our lives, our communities, and our world.

I believe in the Church as holy, catholic, and apostolic. It is from within this community, among the communion of saints, that I experience the awe-inspiring love of the Triune God. These saints are called to love me as their sister, and I am called by God to love the Church in word and deed, because they are my own family in Christ.

Together, we support each other in baptism, for through baptism, we die to what we once were, and are reborn into life in Christ. When we witness baptism, we remember our own, and that we are continually entering into the truth, forgiveness, and life that is our risen Lord.

Together, we partake of the body and blood of Christ, who nourishes us as a mother feeds her children. Around God's table, the Church is united, raucously and reverently giving thanks to God for what was accomplished through God's Son. As we eat and drink, Jesus Christ is present, reconciling us to him, drawing us into God's Kingdom.

I believe that God's Kingdom has already begun to take root in this world. All of creation groans, longing for renewal. Our hope is in God, who is bringing healing to humanity and to all the earth. We long for Jesus' return, when we will know complete wholeness.

I believe that the Church is the body of Christ, called to be his hands and feet in the world. It pleases God to work through us, and we discover healing for ourselves and our world in the doing of God's work. This work is justice and kindness. It is feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, giving water to the thirsty. It is recognizing the abundance that is our God, and letting it spill over, testifying to God's powerful and life-giving love.

Autobiographical Statement Peter Hawisher-Faul

I grew up in Thousand Oaks, California, born on January 16th 1988 to two loving parents who were dedicated to living out their faith as a family. They were members of Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, a relatively new and growing suburban church at the time. As an act of their faith and a sign and seal of the work of God in my life as a new part of the body of Christ, I was baptized on May 8th, 1988. To help me learn Christian values, my parents enrolled me in a private Christian school.

As I grew up, I would find that church to be a community that shared the love of God that my family had shared with me. Between church and school, I grew up immersed in scripture and surrounded by people who sought to live intentionally as Christians. Sunday school teachers would tell me with a laugh that I knew more about the Bible than they did, and joke that I would be a pastor one day, but I didn't take it too seriously.

I lived a sheltered childhood until I switched from private Christian school to public high school. When I encountered new peers with families and lifestyles my Christian school had taught me to condemn, loving my neighbor began to feel more complicated. I continued to study scripture and explore my faith as a leader in my youth group, learning firsthand the power of Christian community to welcome all people and offer meaning, belonging, and identity in Christ. Continuing on through high school, I wanted to know more about what the church was called to be in the world and how I could help the church live out that call.

As I studied theology at Azusa Pacific University, my knowledge and experience grew. I studied the breadth of Christian traditions and discovered that the perspective I was taught at school as a child was quite narrow. I learned the complexities of Biblical interpretation and a more holistic theology. I was given the tools to take ownership of my faith as an individual, but I longed for a community of practice. After some exploration, I eventually reconnected with my Presbyterian roots at the First Presbyterian Church of Pomona.

While the Christian school I grew up in taught isolation from the world, FPC Pomona showed me what our faith can be when we are immersed in our communities. From a community garden to community organizing, the small church had a powerful witness to God's love and justice in their city. After seeing this example, I began to see that God had been preparing me for my own call to ministry and became an inquirer in the PC(USA).

I continued to learn and grow at Princeton Theological Seminary. I studied more than I could possibly summarize, focusing on liturgical theology and Christian Education, and I took advantage of every practical learning opportunity I could find. As I built relationships in the unique community that is seminary, I began to see the myriad of ways churches can and do witness to the Kingdom of God in their midst. Knowing the impact it had on my life and the unmet spiritual needs of my generation, I graduated with the conviction we must continue to creatively share the love of Christ in a world obsessed with success and profit.

My wife received her first call in Cincinnati, and I found an opportunity to serve a local church in professional lay ministry. I found spiritual support and close Christian community in our morning prayer group and Contemplative Clergy Circle. While I helped lead a programmatic church through a period of deep transition, I was reminded of the need to stay personally grounded in relationship with God, and focused on God's love for humanity even beyond the church and the work of professional ministry. I sought an ordained call during that time, but I would not find that call in Cincinnati. I look forward to the opportunity to use my gifts and story to invite others into Christian community as I continue to live out God's call in my life.

Faith Statement Peter Hawisher-Faul

I believe in the triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God in three persons. Through the Trinity we understand God's being and action to bring humanity and all of creation to Godself. In faith, we become a part of God's action as individuals and communities, being shaped by the Spirit into the body of Christ and proclaiming the reign of God in the world.

I believe in God the Father, who created all things and to whom all things return. As a parent nurtures a child, God works in history for the reconciliation of creation with its creator.

I believe in God the Son, Jesus Christ, begotten of the Father and born by his mother Mary. As Jesus is both fully God and fully human, he embodies God's most intimate solidarity with humanity. Jesus was baptized and filled with the Holy Spirit. He called his disciples to turn away from their own self-righteousness and the salvation offered by human powers, and to turn toward the reign of God. He was executed by the authorities of both religion and state. After being buried for three days, he rose from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sent the Holy Spirit to guide those who follow him and baptize in his name.

I believe in God the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life. The Spirit sustains creation and brings the new life of the resurrection into the present. The Spirit guides the church with spiritual gifts and shapes the church into the body of Christ, adopting us as children of God.

I believe God has been made known through the witness of the prophets and apostles. The prophets witness to the work of God among the people of Israel and guide those who seek the God of Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Rebecca. God has been made known directly in Jesus Christ, and it is by the Son that we know the Father and the Spirit. The witness of the apostles not only records, but also invites us into God's action. The Bible is a living word through the work of the Spirit in churches throughout history and in prayerful reading and study.

I believe that God has called us to live out our faith in community as the body of Christ to the world. We enter this community through baptism in water and Spirit and we are nourished in this community by gathering for a common meal where we share the body of Christ with one another through bread and wine. These sacraments and the liturgical life which flows from them shape us as a community along with prayerful reading of scripture. We worship not only for our own benefit, but also so that we proclaim the Kingdom of God which Christ initiated, living under God's sovereignty and seeking justice for the life of our world.

I believe that the final glory of the reign of God is the future of all creation. God is making all things new, as exemplified by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. When we proclaim the reign of God, we proclaim that God's love is more powerful than human violence, ecological harm, and social disparity and we seek to live out God's future in the present.

Autobiographical Statement Cheryl Peeples

I was born in Heidelberg, Germany when my father was serving in the army there and was baptized into the Christian faith by a military chaplain on base when I was four months old. We moved back to the United States when I was two and a half years old and lived in Memphis while my Dad completed his Medical residency. While there, we attended Christ Methodist Church and I went to preschool and kindergarten at the church, learning to pray and to sing “Jesus Loves Me” each day. We moved to my parents’ hometown when I was six. At the age of nine, I was confirmed and became a member of First Methodist Church of Dyersburg. Church was very important to my family – if the doors were open, we were there. I loved church and all we did - singing in the children’s and youth choir, attending Sunday School and VBS, attending worship each week, being a part of the youth group and serving as the Youth Group President when I was a senior in high school. When I was a preteen, I wanted to be a Methodist Nun – I didn’t know of any other term for a woman who served full-time in a church other than that of a nun, and if Catholics had them, surely Methodists did, too. Everyone I told this to at the time laughed, so the idea faded into the background.

As I got older, I went to college at Southwestern at Memphis (now Rhodes College) to study towards a degree in English Literature. Some of my favorite courses were in religion. I met my husband, John, at Southwestern and we were married after my junior year. In my senior year, I went to the career counseling office and took a test to see in what I might excel. One category came up much higher than anything else – “Priest, Rabbi, or Religious Leader.” I wadded up the results and threw the paper away since that wasn’t going to happen. After John earned his MS in Accounting, he had two job offers – one in my hometown and one at St. Jude Hospital. Our agreement was if we went to my hometown, he would become Methodist and if we stayed in the Memphis area, I would become Presbyterian. We moved to his hometown of West Memphis and I became Presbyterian. I am sure it was God’s providence at work. We had two children and I stayed home with them until the younger went to kindergarten. When he was a newborn, he nearly died and as I waited to hear from the doctors if he would live, I felt what seemed to be a warm blanket around me and heard the words clearly, “Whether he lives or dies, he is mine. All will be well,” in answer to my prayer for his healing or for him to die quickly so he would not be in pain. My response to this was to tell God I would do anything God asked of me but to please let me wait until he was in kindergarten.

I began seminary at Memphis Theological Seminary the week he began kindergarten after having multiple people tell me they thought I should do so. I loved it and graduated Summa Cum Laude. I was the DCE at our home church while I was in seminary and was ordained the day after I graduated. Following seminary, I served as Associate Pastor at Farmington Presbyterian Church in Germantown, TN for two years before moving to Virginia to become the Associate Pastor at Christiansburg Presbyterian Church, where I served for nine years. After attending a CREDO conference, it became clear to me that it was time for me to become a Solo Pastor/Head of Staff and I was called to First Presbyterian Church of Ulysses in Trumansburg in the Fingerlakes of New York. I have loved it there for ten years, but now that our grandchildren are growing up, it is time for us to move back to be closer to where they live. I deeply appreciate the values and ministries of Forest Hills Presbyterian Church and look forward to sharing our ministry together.

Faith Statement

Cheryl Peeples

I believe:

In one God, the creator, redeemer, and sustainer of all creation who is made known to us through the Trinity as the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit.

God the Father is the creator of everything. Before anything else, there was God. God has a plan for creation and continues to work in and through the world toward the ultimate fulfillment of the plan.

God the Father sent his only son, Jesus Christ into the world to bring about the redemption of humanity. Jesus was born both fully human, but without sin, and fully divine. Jesus showed through his teachings and actions how to live a perfect life in communion with God. He was wrongly accused of sedition and was crucified on the cross. On the third day, Jesus was raised from the dead, after breaking forever the power of sin and death. In order to provide for us the way to life eternal.

Jesus ascended to God after the resurrection and with the Father sent the Holy Spirit into the world. The Holy Spirit lives in all those who believe. The Holy Spirit guides us in our faith, is a source of comfort in times of trouble, and a source of empowerment so that we may lead lives which reflect the love of God in the world.

Humans are meant to be in covenant relationship with God. When this relationship is broken by humans, we can never be at peace or whole. God is faithful and will never break this relationship with us. The Bible, the written Word of God, was inspired by the Holy Spirit and is intended to be the authoritative record of God's revelation to the world. Through the Bible, we learn of God's actions in the world and are led by the Holy Spirit who guides us in God's continued revelation to the world.

The church is one body under the leadership of Christ and guided by the Holy Spirit. Through the visible means of grace of the sacraments of the Lord's Supper and of Baptism, we are reminded of the sacrifice of Jesus for us. The church is guided by its Creeds and Confessions which are true expositions of faith as they agree with Scripture and speak to the concerns of the different times and places in which they were written. We are called as disciples of Christ to go out into the world to proclaim the good news of the Gospel and to glorify God in all we do.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

INFORMATION:

Fall Financial Packets have been mailed to each of the churches in the Presbytery. We are slowly receiving these commitments.

Peaks PW Group/Circle Report Forms have been mailed out and are in the process of being received from the churches. This gives us a good idea of the number of circles, their involvement in the community and the churches that are participating.

Celebrate the Gifts of Women, Sunday, March 8, 2020: On “Celebrate the Gifts of Women Sunday,” we honor women of faith, those who may have felt their faith falter at times, and those who held fast to faith. The theme for the celebration is “Honoring Women’s Spirituality, Struggle, and Survival.” Though March 8 has been set aside as “Celebrate the Gifts of Women Sunday,” your congregation may use the resource on any day that you choose. The “Celebrate the Gifts of Women” resource is available in the November/December 2019 issue of Horizons magazine. It can be downloaded free from www.pcusa.org/women. It is also free from the PC(USA) store, 800.533.4371, or from www.pcusastore.com; item 27501-20-001.

Spring Neighborhood Gatherings: The Spring Neighborhood Gathering for the Roanoke Valley, Highlands, and New River Valley Neighborhoods will take place on Sunday afternoon, April 19, 2020. The Spring Neighborhood Gathering for the Piedmont, Southside, and Hill Cities Neighborhoods will take place on Sunday afternoon, April 26, 2020. Watch for more details from the Leadership Coordinators and in the next edition of Peaks PW News!

Synod of the Mid-Atlantic PW Summer Gathering: The Synod Summer Gathering will take place June 11-14, 2020, at the Massanetta Springs Camp and Conference Center. The theme will be “Rise Up, You Women . . . Hear My Voice!” based on Isaiah 32:9. Registration forms will be available soon! There are scholarships available – if interested, please send an e mail to Helen Dean at hbarb55@cox.net.

Blacksburg Presbyterian Church installed their leaders on January 26 with Helen Dean.

We are looking for leaders for our Coordinating Team and hope that some ladies will want to be part of this wonderful organization. Please see Helen Dean if you have interest or send her an e mail at: hbarb55@cox.net.

(Y)= Arvon, Fork Union, and Trinity, New Canton are yoked in Christ Presbyterian Parish and turned in one set of minutes, we credited each. (2015)
Steve Earl reports that the above is incorrect and yoked churches need to submit minutes for each church. (Aug 20, 2016.)
Further historical information has been received which suggests one set of minutes may be adequate. TBD (Oct. 2016).
Presbytery Office referred Eliz. Jones, Clerk of Trinity New Canton to D.Hayes of Session Records. Hayes told her to turn in the Tri-Session minutes and we would credit all three since individual sessions don't meet. (Jan 2020)
