Just Living in Advent and Christmas

Just Living: embodying God's call to justice in our daily lives and living simply so that others may simply live.

Just Living, a ministry of the Presbyterian Hunger Program, helps individuals, couples and families practice faith in all aspects of daily life. The "little" decisions about what we buy, how we get places and ways we celebrate and live all add up and impact people and the planet. We can live into God's call to live justly by working together to create a better world where all can share in the abundant life that God intends.

Within the Reformed tradition there is a breadth of ways we are called to live justly. We invite you to personal transformation and offer tools to assist in the lifelong journey of faith.

Each season brings with it unique opportunities and challenges. What it means to live justly at one time may look radically different from what it means to live justly at another time. All of us strive to live in accord with God's word, and how each person engages in practicing lifestyle integrity will vary.

Prepare for the Advent/Christmas season, using seasonal materials, by visiting <https://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/compassion-peace-justice/hunger/enough/just-living/>

The Presbytery Office invites all churches to send in your Holiday Service Schedule for online services. We will make the list available next week. Please send to julie@peakspresbytery.org.
