

Director of Outreach Overview

“Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.”

Philippians 2:3-4

First Presbyterian Church in Lynchburg, Virginia, is looking for a highly motivated and passionate self-starter to serve as a full-time Director of Outreach. The Director will help strengthen the relationship between our church and all of God’s children through transformational outreach and service opportunities within the community and beyond. We seek a leader who demonstrates a strong faith in God and Christian reformed understanding of God’s Word. We believe this to be paramount to encourage and inspire congregants and others to grow their faith in God and express their faith by serving others. The Director’s responsibilities are to embody and facilitate hospitality and outreach to others by organizing and leading service opportunities, organizing new member events, coordinating educational workshops, and building relationships with other community ministries. We seek a person who is skilled in encouraging, recruiting, and organizing congregants, as volunteers, to support all outreach ministries. The individual should be adept at communication, organization, and mentoring, as well as leading groups of people and building positive relationships with a multigenerational congregation. Please visit www.fpclly.org to obtain more information or apply for this position.

Interested applicants should provide cover letter, resume, three references, and application to outreachfpclly@gmail.com.

Applicants are encouraged to direct any questions about the position or application process to Gary Williams at outreachfpclly@gmail.com.
