How Active is the Tour?

We don't take long country hikes. We try to use hotels which have elevators and portage where possible. But you must be in good enough health to travel. Among other things you must be able to – Stand or walk with our guides, inside and outdoors, sometimes in inclement weather; manage coach steps several times a day; manage your own luggage; climb stairs in some hotels; walk city streets (which may have steep hills and steps).

Our Itinerary

Day 1: Monday, October 7 - Welcome to Scotland! Group members will make their own flight arrangements. Arrive Edinburgh this morning. Spend the day as you wish and check in to your hotel. Meet your tour manager late afternoon. We'll pause for a service of welcome, a short act of worship in the Celtic tradition, followed by dinner. Meals included – welcome dinner Overnight: Edinburgh City Center

Day 2: Tuesday, October 8 – Let's Go! ! Our coach takes us to Glasgow. We have time for a short visit to Kelvingrove Museum, home to Salvador Dali's Christ of St. John of the Cross. Our scenic route leads by Loch Lomond to the west coast. At Oban we catch the ferry to the Isle of Mull. We arrive at our hotel, overlooking lovely Tobermory Bay, in time for dinner. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight: Tobermory, Isle of Mull

Day 3: Wednesday, October 9– Iona...a Thin Place We drive across the single track road to Fionnphort where a short ferry ride brings us to Iona: a very special island. St Columba arrived here in the year 563, establishing the Christian faith in this land. In Celtic spirituality Iona is sometimes described as a "thin place" - where the veil between heaven and earth seems almost transparent. We visit the Abbey, learn some of the island's history and hear about the Iona Community, returning to Tobermory for the night. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight: Tobermory, Isle of Mull

Day 4: Thursday, October 10 – The Great Glen and Inverness The morning ferry takes us back to the mainland. A distillery visit is on our agenda. We'll pass by Glen Coe, location of an infamous event in Scotland's history, then travel on through the beautiful scenery of the Great Glen and alongside Loch Ness. Near Inverness we'll visit the Culloden Battlefield where we can learn about Bonnie Prince Charlie and the Jacobites. Meals included – breakfast Overnight: Grantown-on-Spey

Day 5: Friday, October 11 – I will lift mine eyes unto the hills Turning south, we continue through the majesty of the Scottish Highlands. We ride the Cairngorm Mountain Railway – an ingenious funicular which takes us to the top. Then on to Perth and St John's Kirk. John Knox preached here setting light to the Reformation in Scotland. Dinner tonight begins with a haggis ceremony complete with bagpipes and the poetry of Robert Burns. And, of course, you can taste a little. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight – Stirling

Day 6: Saturday, Oct 12 – Stirling and St Andrews Stirling Castle sits on a volcanic crag and has been fortified since ancient times. It provides a memorable visit. We drive on to the coastal town of St Andrews. Famous for golf today, it has also been a place of pilgrimage and is an important site for Reformation history. One of our excellent guides will lead a walking tour. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight – Stirling

Day 7: Sunday, October 13 – Edinburgh...The Athens of the North This morning you can share in worship in the magnificent St Giles Cathedral. Edinburgh, Scotland's beautiful capital, is rich in history. It's also a vibrant, modern city. We'll weave stories of Scotland's Presbyterian heritage into a walk this afternoon. Our route will include the Royal Mile, Greyfriars Kirkyard and Holyrood, ending our tour at the modern buildings of the Scottish Parliament. Tonight you'll be free to choose dinner on your own in one of Edinburgh's many excellent restaurants. Meals included – breakfast Overnight – Edinburgh City Center

Day 8: Monday, October 14 – A Little More Edinburgh Most of today is free for you to explore. Perhaps you will visit the Castle or Holyrood Palace. Or you might want to relax over coffee and watch the city go by. Tonight we will share worship together and close with a celebration dinner. Meals included – breakfast, celebration dinner Overnight – Edinburgh City Center

Day 9: Tuesday, October 15 – Departures Haste ye back! Meals included – breakfast

The above program is a fair representation of the proposed tour but is subject to change at the discretion of Scotus Tours.

Rev. M. Angharad Teague Dees

Join me in Scotland for an adventure exploring our Presbyterian heritage! We will see Edinburgh, Stirling and St Andrews...visit churches...walk in the footsteps of John Knox and spend a day on the deeply spiritual island of Iona. This invitation is for all members and friends of Quaker as well as members of the Presbytery of the Peaks.

I made a similar pilgrimage to Scotland over twenty years ago: it was truly the trip of a lifetime and I look forward to sharing this journey with a new group of travelers.

Angharad

Dear Fellow Traveler,

People are always telling me they would love to visit Scotland. Whether it is the majestic scenery of the highlands which attracts them; or our castles, churches and cities steeped in history; or maybe our proud tradition of hospitality – all these and more combine to make a trip to Scotland unforgettable.

For people of faith Scotland also has much to offer. Christianity came to these shores no later than the sixth century. And the impact of the Reformation has extended far around the world.

I'm a native Scot and minister of the Church of Scotland. I've also served in the PC(USA). I want you to enjoy an outstanding trip; to see the real Scotland; to discover, in particular, our sacred heritage. And I run Scotus Tours to make that possible.
