for interested persons to fill this important position. Active PC(USA) pastors or retired pastors are encouraged to consider this part-time position. Solid knowledge of the Book of Order and Presbyterian polity will be important in carrying out the duties, but training is available for those who would like to learn. To request a job description or to express interest in the position, please email Rev. Bob McLavey, the search committee chair, at pastor@pcfloyd.org. Transitional Presbyter Search Update

The work of the presbytery's Transitional Presbyter Search Committee is now fully underway! They reached the milestone of listing the Ministry Discernment Profile for the position in the CLC on April 15. They are currently evaluating the initial batch of matches and contacting the most promising candidates. If you would like to recommend anyone for consideration, please do not delay. Contact Dave Roberts, committee chair, at dave@sapclynchburg.org. Bluegrass at New Concord the Lilly Endowment for Religion. It will create a space which focuses exclusively on rural congregations and offers opportunities for leaders and congregants to share opportunities and challenges in a place designed uniquely for them. This ecumenical conference will remind us of our calling to be the Church of Jesus Christ and contextualize that identity in our small towns and rural areas. It will give congregations tools to better engage their communities. It will bring together leaders in rural church thought from around the country. To register for the conference, or to

Unrepresented Migrant Children

From Presbyterian Peace Fellowship - Right now in the U.S., thousands of unaccompanied migrant children are facing the immigration court system without transportation, and encouragement during a confusing and traumatic process. What accompaniment is not: It is not about rescuing or speaking for others. Accompaniment is not charity — it is standing with people in their struggle, led by their needs and dignity.

as a place of refuge and blessing for the community. A place where people can rest, hang out, enjoy a free lunch, be prayed for, and participate in the study of God's Word if they so choose. Jesus tells us when we have a dinner or party invite the poor, the blind, the crippled, and the lame. This is part of the reason we do what we do. We are expecting revival in SE Roanoke and beyond. Please consider coming together as a community.

We appreciate your prayers and support!
