General Presbyter Search Update

Please keep praying for your transitional General Presbyter search committee. After reviewing dozens of candidates, meeting with several over video, and interviewing two in person, we have not yet found the one we believe God is calling to this role. We have reopened our CLC listing and are accepting new applicants at the present time. We give thanks for the Rev. Don Makin agreeing to serve as Interim GP while we continue the search.

Let us join together to pray for our search team and their work:

God as we move through this time of transition for our presbytery, we thank you for the search team and their willingness to serve in this way. Give them wisdom and discernment to find a candidate who matches our presbytery's needs - someone with the right balance of leadership experience, kingdom vision, and pastoral heart. Grant them, and us, patience and peace so that we don't override Your voice with our own anxieties. Amen.
